

WHAT IS THE USTSF?

1. The United States Table Soccer Federation (USTSF) is a 501(c)3 non-profit charitable organization, and is the official governing body for the sport of table soccer (a.k.a. "foosball") throughout the USA.
2. The USTSF's primary mission is to gain recognition for table soccer as a competitive sport – not only among players but also through official determination by the United States Olympic Committee (USOC).
3. The USTSF represents the players, and acts as their liaison to the International Table Soccer Federation (ITSF), the USOC, the table manufacturers, distributors and operators, the media and the public.
4. The USTSF, in coordination with the ITSF, sanctions between 10 and 15 out of 50 of ITSF's World Pro Tour tournaments each year, each varying in prize funds from $2,500 to $100,000, and further independently sanctions a number of other national, regional and state championship events.
5. The USTSF ensures qualification opportunities for American players (including juniors, seniors and women, and the U.S. National Team) to compete in the ITSF World Championships and World Cup of Table Soccer, held annually in Europe.
6. The USTSF seeks to both increase visibility for the sport of table soccer and to build the player base via grass roots promotions (local leagues, tournaments, etc) and via community involvement through such USTSF programs as "Tables to the Troops," "Tables for Kids," and Wounded Warriors, among others.
