

The United States Table Soccer Federation (USTSF) is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization that acts as the governing body for the sport of table soccer (a.k.a. "foosball") in the USA. The USTSF serves as liaison between the International Table Soccer Federation (ITSF), home and coin-operated table soccer manufacturers, pro tour sponsors, member associations and player/athletes, industry and media, and the U.S. Olympic Membership & Credentials Committee. The USTSF sets standards for rules, conduct, ethics and discipline for its participants, and actively strives to develop and grow the U.S. player base (from youth through senior). The USTSF further sanctions and promotes 10-15 tour tournaments on an annual basis across all North America, to include the U.S. Open and National Championships, and supports the U.S. National Team in qualification for international competition.
