PUBLIC NOTICE:

The United States Table Soccer Federation is accepting applications (nominations) to the ballot for the following positions on the Board of Directors:

President

Treasurer

At-large Director

At-large Director

These are all two (2) year term positions.

The voting procedure works the following way:

Anyone may submit applications for the various positions. The USTSF will accept applications/nominations for candidacy for 3 weeks, beginning today (August 16, 2010) and ending September 6, 2010. A list of candidates for each of the positions will be made public before any voting begins.

A vote is taken to determine which of the candidates are elected. The voting is done by secret ballot, via e-mail. Each of the USTSF State and Regional directors may cast one vote, the vote will consist of:

- submitting one name for President, one name for Treasurer, and 2 names for at-large positions
- For the office of president, the candidate who receives the most votes, wins
- For the office of treasurer, the candidate who receives the most votes, wins
- For the two at-large positions, the two (2) candidates who receive the largest number of votes win

Once all applications/nominations are received, the voting will begin. Voting is cast by the USTSF State and Regional Directors, and will last for one (1) week. After the one week voting period, the votes will be tallied and the winners publicly announced. The new members of the Board of Directors will begin their terms immediately upon the announcement of the election results.

To submit an application/nomination for a position on the Board, please send an e-mail to the following e-mail address:

nominations.ustsf@gmail.com <<mailto:nominations.ustsf@gmail.com>>

Please include the name of the applicant/nominee, and the position (President, At-Large Director, etc.). Please also include a valid e-mail address for the candidate.

All applicants/nominees will receive an e-mail asking for confirmation of their desire to run for office, and a request for a summary of why they would be a good candidate for that particular position. Note: statements are strongly encouraged, but not mandatory.

All candidate summaries will be made available for public review, and a copy of the summaries will be sent to each of the USTSF State and Regional Directors for review before the voting begins.
